

Application for CCSE Federal Credit Union Student Scholarship Award

CCSE is proud to offer this award in memory of two remarkable people, Hobie Rhinehart and Laurie Urbanski. Mr. Rhinehart was one of the original founders of CCSE and was the long serving Treasurer on the Board of Directors. Mrs. Urbanski was the long time manager of the credit union going back to the very early days of the credit union’s history. Their values of community service and leadership along with their tremendous work ethic is what we hope to see in our applicants for this award.

Eligibility:

If you are a graduating senior that is a member of our credit union and have been an outstanding volunteer in your school or community, we welcome you to submit this application for a chance to receive $1,200.

Please return the application, along with two letters of recommendation:
